

ELEVATE DETROIT GETAWAY

The word discipline in “discipline yourself for the purpose of godliness” (1 Timothy 4:7, NASB) is a word with the smell of the gym in it – the sweat of a good workout. It is an unabashed call to spiritual sweat.

In Youth Ministry we call weekend getaways RETREATS but RETREAT carries some weight to it. RETREAT means we are stepping away from the battle to ReGroup and then ReTurn to the fight. This is what this Detroit weekend is all about as we step away to ReTreat from the daily routine, ReOrient our life back to Jesus, ReEvaluate what is important, and Rejoice in time with God and each other.

So come with us March 2-4, 2012 for weekend of fun, service, and moments with God as we talk about and live out some important Spiritual Disciplines. Did I mention we are attempting to get in on a game of 'whirlyball'? This weekend will be a blast!
